HAVANA HEIGHTS: VIVA CUBA! AT LUMAS GALLERY

Chloë Riddle
29 September 2015

An exciting new exhibition showcasing the culture of Cuba opens today

With exclusive photographs by Werner Pawlok, Luigi Visconti and Larry Yust, Viva Cuba! at LUMAS Gallery delves into the unique architecture, stunning colours and vibrant atmosphere of this fascinating Caribbean island.

“Cuba is such a beautiful country, and everywhere you go, there’s music and people dancing – especially in Havana” – Julia Sawalha

Pawlok’s photography in particular highlights the decline of decadence in the country after years of upheaval, and reveals how rapidly it has changed since his last exhibition Cuba – expired.

Viva Cuba! until 31 October, 57 South Molton Street, W1K, www.lumas.com
